

BLINDFOLD VISION

August 2017

LOGLINE:

When a mob enforcer tries to recall being held hostage, both he and the police question his clouded recollections, amplified by having mysteriously gone blind and his captor being his own double.

SYNOPSIS:

Set in a seedy Dutch city, Blindfold Vision chronicles a life-changing event for Sam Sertie, a hard-boiled enforcer for The Concern, the most powerful crime syndicate in the region. After staging a daring airport diamond heist, Sertie's tracked down by a mob clean-up crew. Kidnapped, Sertie literally faces his own demons as he's held captive by his own double. When he mysteriously loses his sight, he journeys into the heart of his own darkness. Loyalties are pushed to breaking point, the hardest truths are learnt, and true selves are revealed. Who's vision is true: Bergman, the cynical cop who in a later timeline tries to decipher the events; Lacroix, the crooked cop who negotiates for Sertie's release; Magdalena, mob "cleaner" with her own agenda; or Sertie, who might just have a lesson for us all.
